statements and submit them to the judges granting license, who are required to classify the license accordingly.

The clerk and inspectors must furnish a bond of $5,000 and may only be removed for cause. The bill authorizes the sale of liquor on election day after 7 o'clock in the evening and provides that any minor who misrepresents his age in order to procure liquor shall be subject to a penalty of not less than $20 nor more than $100, or an imprisonment of sixty days.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Amendments to Regulate Licenses Introduced by Mr. Littley. Harrisburg, March 28.—The house met at 10 o'clock and resumed consideration of Senator Kline's bill providing for the erection and organization of new counties. It was allowed to pass second reading without much objection, the understanding being that the bill will be resumed on third reading. The vote on second reading was: Yeas, 78; nays, 72.

Mr. Littley, of Philadelphia, introduced a bill embracing the proposed amendments to the Brooks liquor license law, as introduced by the State liquor league. It provides for licenses based on gross receipts as follows: In cities of the first and second class, receipts of $25,000, fee $1,000; for $25,000, fee of $1,000; for $15,000, fee of $750; all under $15,000, fee of $500. In cities of the third class, receipts of $15,000 or over, the fee shall be $750; for $10,000, fee of $500. It provides that the fee in boroughs shall be $150, and in townships $75, and it further provides that in addition to the license fees as above, the sum of $20 in the first and second class cities, and $15 in all other cities, boroughs and townships shall be paid for inspectors or clerks, who shall receive an annual salary of $2,000 per annum for examining the accounts appertaining to the purchase and sales of liquors. It is made the duty of these inspectors to make reports to the State liquor league, who classifies the applicants for licenses. It is also provided that liquor may be sold on election day after 7 o'clock in the evening. A provision was added requiring remonstrants to appear in open court.

To Encourage Wide Fires. The Harvey bill to encourage the use of wide fires upon wagon upon the public highways, passed, finally, the vote being 125 yeas and 16 nays. It is claimed by the friends of the measure that it will do much to improve the roads.

The senate bill authorizing municipal corporations to open, widen, straighten and extend streets and alleys was called up.

Mr. Cotton, of Allegheny, offered important amendments, giving cities and boroughs the power to lay out streets and alleys, establish or re-establish grades of streets and alleys, and to construct bridges, piers and abutments therefor, and sewers and drains in any street or alley, or through an or over private property.

The bill was discussed at some length, many county members opposing the measure so far as it relates to boroughs. An amendment was finally adopted striking out boroughs, and the bill passed second reading.

On motion of Mr. Muehlbrunner, of Allegheny, the bill to prevent deception in the sale of dairy products was stricken from the calendar.

When the bill authorizing street passenger railway companies to sell their franchises came up on second reading, the opposition declaring that it would mean the destruction of competition in street railway services, and the creation of monopoly. Mr. Phillips, of Chester, offered an amendment that the bill should not be construed to give supervisors the right to grant the use of any public highway to a trolley transportation company. This was agreed to. Mr. Merriock, of Tioga, offered a similar amendment taking away from borough councils the power to grant rights of way, but it was voted down.

Mr. Martin, of Lawrence, then offered an amendment that the act shall apply to any city of the third class to grant the use of any street or public highway to any trolley or transportation company, but the speaker declared the amendment unconstitutional.

Mr. Hawkins, of York, offered an amendment to the act, providing that any city of the third class to grant the use of any street or public highway to any trolley or transportation company, but the speaker declared the amendment unconstitutional.

A bill making the district attorney's office a salaried one was first amended and then killed. These bills passed second reading: Regulating charges by school directors; relating to the compensation of female teachers; to authorize school directors to qualify each other; to prevent the spread of contagious and infectious diseases in schools. The bill to establish the state live stock sanitary board was dropped from the calendar.

Governor Hastings notified the house of his approval of these bills: Granting annuity to William W. Snowden, Allegheny county, late a private in the Fourteenth regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania; also act providing for biennial organization of councils in the second class; also bill appropriating $10,000 to furnish administration building state hospital in Harrisburg.

The house at 6 p. m. adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

ROUTINE WORK IN SENATE.

Delaney Confirmed as Superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings.

Harrisburg, March 28.—The senate met at 11 o'clock this morning. The senate bill to confirm the nomination of John C. Delaney to be superintendent of public grounds and buildings. The nomination was at once confirmed.

Among the bills introduced were the following: By Mr. Thomas.—To take out of the control of the Philadelphia public buildings commission Independence Square, and place it and the buildings thereon under the supervision of the department of public works. The bill is approved by the public buildings commission.

By Mr. Penrose.—Making fifty-five hours a week's work for minors in factories and workshops, and declaring that no minor shall be required to begin work before 7 a. m. nor to continue work after 6 p. m., nor on Saturday to continue work after 12 o'clock noon.

By Mr. Mitchell.—Making it unlawful for building and loan associations to establish and maintain offices or employ agents in counties other than wherein their principal office shall be located, and making it unlawful to solicit or receive subscriptions to the stock of such associations except within the county where the principal office is located.

The vote by which the bill defining and naming the several methods of life insurance, and extending protection to and punishing fraud upon foreign and domestic life and accident insurance companies was defeated, was reconsidered and the bill postponed for the present.

Vague, Unsatisfactory, Ridiculous. Senator Penrose attacked the bill defining and naming the punishment of bribery at elections, when it came up for third reading, declaring its provisions to be vague, unsatisfactory and ever ridiculous.

Senator Baker showed that the bill was drawn up in accordance with the eighth section of the eighth article of the constitution, which declared that no person shall give, or promise to give, to any elector or voter money, either for such elector's vote or for withholding it.

The bill was further opposed by Senators Brewer and Gobin and defended by Senator Landis, who declared that the identical language of this bill has been approved by the supreme court. He said there was not a single polling place in the state where votes were counted as they were cast. He appealed to senators if not as patriots, as Republicans, to support the bill and asserted that the identical language of this bill has been approved by the supreme court.

"What a Lovely Complexion!"

"Isn't her complexion charming!" These are expressions we hear every day, made by women in reference to others, which reveal a pardonable envy, and one which can be gratified.

The secret of good health, as indicated by a rich color, and well-rounded figure, is found in a good digestion.

Shopping trips, dances and entertainments indulged in, will leave you utterly fagged out, unless you are obtaining all the value from your food; and it is so easy to accomplish this that you will wonder no one has spoken to you of it before.

Try with each meal, and at bed-time, a wineglassful or more of the Genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract, which you will find to be most acceptable to the palate as a beverage, and will lift you right on to the plane of the vivacious and trim-figured sister you admire so much, and who seems capable of enduring endless fatigue.

Then, again, we must remember the nursing mother, where two lives are dependent upon the proper nourishing of the one. Surely nothing can be more valuable to the mother, nor give more comfort to the baby, by producing a generous flow of milk, than the GENUINE JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT. Defective nutrition is the foundation of all ailments. A healthy, well-nourished body can withstand almost any disease. There is resistance power in such a body.

I have been taking the Genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract myself for a year or so, and find it an excellent tonic and appetizer. Without doubt it is the best Malt Extract in the market. W. A. WHITTEK, Druggist, Chestnut Hill.
